

MODT (Memorandum of Deposit of Title Deed) – Required Documents & Registration Process

This document provides a general checklist of documents and the process commonly required for registering a MODT (Memorandum of Deposit of Title Deed) in India. MODT is generally executed when property documents are deposited with a bank or financial institution as security for a home loan or mortgage loan.

1. Common Documents Required

- Loan sanction letter issued by the bank or financial institution.
- Original title/property documents.
- Sale deed / conveyance deed copies.
- Khata certificate / mutation documents (if applicable).
- Latest property tax paid receipts.
- Encumbrance Certificate (EC).
- Government-issued ID proof of borrower(s) (Aadhaar, PAN, Passport, etc.).
- Address proof of borrower(s).
- Passport-size photographs of borrower(s).
- PAN card copies for financial and property transactions.
- Witness ID proofs and photographs (usually two witnesses).

2. Purpose of MODT

- Creates a legal record of mortgage by deposit of title deeds.
- Provides security interest to the lender against the property.
- Commonly required for home loans, mortgage loans, and loan against property.

3. Registration Process

- Borrower deposits original title deeds with the bank.
- MODT document is drafted with loan and property details.
- Applicable stamp duty and registration fees are paid.
- Borrower and witnesses visit the Sub-Registrar Office for verification and signatures.
- Biometric verification and document registration are completed.
- Registered MODT copy is issued after successful processing.

4. Important Notes

- Stamp duty and registration charges vary from state to state.
- Banks may have additional documentation requirements.

- Original documents must be carried during registration.
- MODT registration strengthens the lender's legal claim over the mortgaged property.

5. Typical Charges (Indicative Only)

Item	Approximate Amount
Stamp Duty	Varies by state and loan amount
Registration Fee	Usually ■1,000 – ■30,000+
Documentation / Processing Charges	As per bank or legal service provider
